IMPORTANT QUESTIONS

Have you designated beneficiaries for your accounts? How is your property held? Even if you don't have a will, it's important to be able to answer these questions. We can help you make sure the proper designations are in place so that your plans are carried out according to your wishes.

MULTIPLE BENEFICIARIES

Keep in mind that there are many ways you can pass on your assets outside of a will. You can designate multiple beneficiaries, taking care of your family and the causes most important to you. If you want to help further our mission, please consider making our organization a beneficiary in an amount or percentage of your choosing.

Even if you have never talked with an attorney, you probably already have an estate plan — and it likely controls most of your liquid assets.

Take control of your legacy.

RECOGNITION YOU DESERVE FOR THE LEGACY YOU LEAVE

Have you ever thought about how many organizations or clubs count you as a member? If you are like most people, you have cards in your wallet or purse that remind you that you belong. When you consider gyms, auto clubs, grocery stores, airlines, hotels and other businesses and organizations that you are a member of, the numbers can be astounding.

WE BELONG TO YOU

What if an organization belonged to you? Our legacy society is a membership organization that exists to serve and recognize you. There are no dues, and the only requirement for membership is that you let us know when you have made a planned gift to our organization.

TO PROTECT AND TO SERVE

The primary purpose of the legacy society is to serve you. When you join, we recognize you with special benefits just for members, including special events, invitations, mailings and more. Our goal is to let you know how much we appreciate your decision to give and how your gift impacts our work. In addition, by getting to know you and your goals, we can make certain that your gift is used in the way you intend.

ESTATE PLANNING

While many people think of a will as their estate plan, a will is only part of most plans. Half of all Americans do not have a will. Creating a will may be important to ensuring the security of your loved ones after you are gone. However, some of your assets will automatically pass to your family.

A SIMPLE FORM

It's easy to designate beneficiaries for retirement assets, investments and life insurance by completing a simple form. Many forms are available online. You can also add a beneficiary to a deed for land or a home that you own. The following is a list of assets to consider as well as the form or method by which they are commonly transferred.
