

RAYMOND ARROYO

Board Member

Raymond Arroyo is an internationally known, award-winning journalist. Mr. Arroyo established EWTNNews in 1996, creating several programs including: Newslink; Newslines; and the weekly international news magazine, The World Over Live. Mr. Arroyo is also responsible for EWTN's live coverage of news events around the globe. Additionally, he has written and produced numerous documentaries and special programs; including the award-winning documentary: "Path of The Messiah" shot entirely in the Middle East.

In addition to his work at EWTN, Mr. Arroyo has appeared on "The Today Show", "CNN Headline News", "Access Hollywood", "Capitol Gang", "Deborah Norville Tonight", "Scarborough Country", and other national programs. His writings have appeared in the Wall Street Journal, The Washington Times, The Financial Times, National Review, Our Sunday Visitor, and elsewhere. Mr. Arroyo resides in New Orleans with his wife Rebecca and his sons, Alexander and Lorenzo.